Mr. James H. Quello
Acting Chairman
Federal Communications Commission

Dear Mr. Quello:

I am writing to express my concerns about PR Docket 92-235. This proposed rule ignores the unique characteristics of rural areas. This will require investing large sums of money to solve a problem that we do not yet have. Our emergency radio equipment functions fine and the additional transmitters are not required.

Our local governments must be given time to phase in the new system due to the cost of other Federal mandated programs.

Please give careful consideration to the impact this proposed rule would have on rural areas in the State of Idaho.

Sincerely,
